

Achievements
Educational Services

PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT
WORKSHOP
CATALOG
2024

Achievements
Educational Services
1072 Madison Ave.
Lakewood, NJ 08701

Women Sessions

Professional Development

Zoom option available

The First Day

Mrs. Ettie Neustadt
September 3 | 6:30pm-8:30pm

3

Reward System

Mrs. Ettie Neustadt
September 3 | 6:30pm-8:30pm

4

Demerit System

Mrs. Ettie Neustadt
September 5 | 6:30pm-8:30pm

5

Common Classroom Scenarios

Mrs. Ettie Neustadt
September 5 | 6:30pm-8:30pm

6

Supporting The Challenged Student

Mrs. Ettie Neustadt
September 8 | 6:30pm-8:30pm

7

A Teacher's Responsibilities

Mrs. Ettie Neustadt
September 8 | 6:30pm-8:30pm

8

Classroom Management 1

THE FIRST DAY

This lecture prepares the teacher for the first day of school. It provides a strategy for how to walk in and convey positive energy and fairness while at the same time asserting authority. The teacher is given sample introductory greetings, as well as what to expect the first day.

Mrs. Ettie Neustadt Women's Session

Mrs. Ettie Neustadt is an accredited educator with over four decades of experience in teaching, teacher training, and mentoring. Her unique talents in working with students, as well as with aspiring teachers, have characterized her colorful and productive career. It has spanned four states and half a dozen schools. She offers tried-and-proven methods that have withstood the test of time, as well as the novel innovations of a constantly changing educational landscape.

Mrs. Neustadt has a NYSTU Teacher's License, and is an Ohio State Certified Educator. She has taken numerous professional development courses in teaching methodology and education. She has also conducted her own teaching workshops and has provided instruction and mentoring to aspiring teachers, most notably in Yavne Seminary of Cleveland, OH and Tashbar Elementary of Lakewood, NJ.

Classroom Management 2

REWARDS SYSTEM

This workshop explains the need and benefits of an official reward system. It provides sample systems that are tried and tested, but leaves room for personalizing and adapting to the class' individual needs. Additionally, the need to offer verbal recognition and compliments is underscored.

Mrs. Ettie Neustadt Women's Session

Mrs. Ettie Neustadt is an accredited educator with over four decades of experience in teaching, teacher training, and mentoring. Her unique talents in working with students, as well as with aspiring teachers, have characterized her colorful and productive career. It has spanned four states and half a dozen schools. She offers tried-and-proven methods that have withstood the test of time, as well as the novel innovations of a constantly changing educational landscape.

Mrs. Neustadt has a NYSTU Teacher's License, and is an Ohio State Certified Educator. She has taken numerous professional development courses in teaching methodology and education. She has also conducted her own teaching workshops and has provided instruction and mentoring to aspiring teachers, most notably in Yavne Seminary of Cleveland, OH and Tashbar Elementary of Lakewood, NJ.

Classroom Management 3

DISCIPLINARY SYSTEM

At times it is imperative to correct lack of decorum or misbehavior in the classroom setting. In this workshop, teachers are taught to enact a system of punishments at the start of the year rather than make up punitive measures on the fly. They will learn how responding calmly and quietly will be more effective than responding angrily and forcibly.

Mrs. Ettie Neustadt Women's Session

Mrs. Ettie Neustadt is an accredited educator with over four decades of experience in teaching, teacher training, and mentoring. Her unique talents in working with students, as well as with aspiring teachers, have characterized her colorful and productive career. It has spanned four states and half a dozen schools. She offers tried-and-proven methods that have withstood the test of time, as well as the novel innovations of a constantly changing educational landscape.

Mrs. Neustadt has a NYSTU Teacher's License, and is an Ohio State Certified Educator. She has taken numerous professional development courses in teaching methodology and education. She has also conducted her own teaching workshops and has provided instruction and mentoring to aspiring teachers, most notably in Yavne Seminary of Cleveland, OH and Tashbar Elementary of Lakewood, NJ.

Classroom Management 4

COMMON CLASSROOM SCENARIOS

This workshop goes through a wide variety of common classroom scenarios, such as the defiant or disrespectful student, talking during class, and sudden, loud commotions. Teachers are offered different strategies for dealing with the situation, as well as examples of cool and calm responses that can help diffuse tension and quickly return order to the classroom.

Mrs. Ettie Neustadt Women's Session

Mrs. Ettie Neustadt is an accredited educator with over four decades of experience in teaching, teacher training, and mentoring. Her unique talents in working with students, as well as with aspiring teachers, have characterized her colorful and productive career. It has spanned four states and half a dozen schools. She offers tried-and-proven methods that have withstood the test of time, as well as the novel innovations of a constantly changing educational landscape.

Mrs. Neustadt has a NYSTU Teacher's License, and is an Ohio State Certified Educator. She has taken numerous professional development courses in teaching methodology and education. She has also conducted her own teaching workshops and has provided instruction and mentoring to aspiring teachers, most notably in Yavne Seminary of Cleveland, OH and Tashbar Elementary of Lakewood, NJ.

Classroom Management 5 THE CHALLENGED STUDENT

Students are not one-size-fits-all. Some students struggle with behavioral or learning challenges. This workshop empowers teachers to recognize a student's challenges and relate to students on an individual basis. Teachers are also taught effective communication techniques to help them correct misbehavior without putting a student on the defense.

Mrs. Ettie Neustadt Women's Session

Mrs. Ettie Neustadt is an accredited educator with over four decades of experience in teaching, teacher training, and mentoring. Her unique talents in working with students, as well as with aspiring teachers, have characterized her colorful and productive career. It has spanned four states and half a dozen schools. She offers tried-and-proven methods that have withstood the test of time, as well as the novel innovations of a constantly changing educational landscape.

Mrs. Neustadt has a NYSTU Teacher's License, and is an Ohio State Certified Educator. She has taken numerous professional development courses in teaching methodology and education. She has also conducted her own teaching workshops and has provided instruction and mentoring to aspiring teachers, most notably in Yavne Seminary of Cleveland, OH and Tashbar Elementary of Lakewood, NJ.

Classroom Management 6 A TEACHER'S RESPONSIBILITIES

This workshop covers many topics relating to a teachers responsibilities such as: communication with parents, report cards, tests, and compliance with school bylaws. And, teachers are taught how to conduct themselves in a professional manner that is above reproach.

Mrs. Ettie Neustadt Women's Session

Mrs. Ettie Neustadt is an accredited educator with over four decades of experience in teaching, teacher training, and mentoring. Her unique talents in working with students, as well as with aspiring teachers, have characterized her colorful and productive career. It has spanned four states and half a dozen schools. She offers tried-and-proven methods that have withstood the test of time, as well as the novel innovations of a constantly changing educational landscape.

Mrs. Neustadt has a NYSTU Teacher's License, and is an Ohio State Certified Educator. She has taken numerous professional development courses in teaching methodology and education. She has also conducted her own teaching workshops and has provided instruction and mentoring to aspiring teachers, most notably in Yavne Seminary of Cleveland, OH and Tashbar Elementary of Lakewood, NJ.

Achievements

Educational Services

1072 Madison Ave.
Lakewood, NJ 08701

www.achievementseES.com
info@achievementseES.com
800-742-1803